How to Succeed in Graduate School: Tips for New Graduate Students

Kiri Kilpatrick, Associate Director, Graduate Student Development, GPS

Description: Learn how to better prepare yourself for grad school! This session will cover tips for first year doctoral students, including how to select an advisor and communication strategies for a productive advising experience.

When: Tuesday, Sept. 19, 2017
What time: 3:00- 4:00 PM
Where: Sewall Hall 303

Registration is required.

To register, please scan the QR code or visit: graduate.rice.edu/succeedregistration

Refreshments will be served