

 The Office of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies	The Office of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies governs programs beyond the undergraduate degree. In addition to managing admission, degree requirements, and finances, GPS supports professional development, GradStarter, 90-second Thesis, Night at the Museum, CIRTl, and diverse offerings to improve graduate student success. Website: http://graduate.rice.edu/ Contact: graduate@rice.edu
 Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies Succeed! Workshops	Succeed! Workshops are held twice a month for Rice graduate students and postdocs. The topics range from “creating effective conference posters” to “the art of networking.” The workshops are designed to help the graduate students Succeed! in and outside of Rice. Website: http://graduate.rice.edu/succeed Contact: Sherry Vanderslice (sherry.d.vanderslice@rice.edu)
	An important aspect of the Center for Teaching Excellence’s mission is to provide resources both for graduate students who are currently TAs or instructors of record at Rice, as well as for graduate students who wish to build academic careers in which teaching will play a significant role. As a part of these efforts, they recently established an accredited certificate program in pedagogy (Certificate in Teaching and Learning). CTE also offers TA training as well as seminars, workshops, and reading groups focused on teaching and learning. Website: http://cte.rice.edu Contact: cte@rice.edu
	The Center for Written, Oral, and Visual Communication (CWOVC) provides instruction and support for all members of the Rice community to develop the skills needed to effectively share their ideas with the world. The CWOVC offers workshops, courses, and one-on-one consultations to help all students make their written, verbal and visual communications clear, well-organized and persuasive. Topics for workshops and courses range from writing effective research reports and presenting scientific journal articles to sending professional emails and improving clarity in academic conversations. The CWOVC also offers English-as-a-second-language courses for international graduate students. Website: http://cwovc.rice.edu Contact: cwovc@rice.edu
	GradStarter is a dynamic platform designed to help graduate students and postdocs develop and launch new ideas that enhance the graduate and postdoctoral intellectual community at Rice University. Rice community members are invited to submit proposals for projects that promote graduate and postdoctoral scholarship, training, and development. The proposals are featured on our website and the Rice community is invited to view the proposals, provide feedback, and indicate which proposals they are interested in and want to see developed. Website: http://gradstarter.rice.edu Contact: Kiri Kilpatrick (kiri.kilpatrick@rice.edu)
	Being able to describe your work quickly and succinctly, to a diverse audience, is an important skill for graduate students. The 90-Second Thesis Competition is an academic elevator speech-style competition that was developed to challenge students to engage a broad audience intellectually and communicate the uniqueness and significance of their research topic in just 90 seconds. Contestants are provided with professional coaching to hone their communication skills, and help prepare for the competition. Website: http://graduate.rice.edu/90secondthesis Contact: Kiri Kilpatrick (kiri.kilpatrick@rice.edu)

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP COACHING	The Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies coordinates the Graduate Fellowship Coaching program that provides graduate students with fellowship profiles, information sessions, workshops, writing labs, and one-on-one mentoring. Their aim is to equip students with the resources and support necessary to compose a competitive and persuasive application. Website: http://graduate.rice.edu/requestfellowshipcoach Contact: Kiri Kilpatrick (kiri.kilpatrick@rice.edu)
Rice Graduate Education for Minorities (RGEM) The Richard Tapia Center	RGEM started on September 1, 2015 to revive the Rice AGEP program for minority graduate students in STEM disciplines and extends to all underrepresented minority graduate students across the various disciplines including the Schools of Humanities and Social Sciences at Rice University. RGEM focuses on two principle components of the AGEP model: Faculty Involvement and Building the Community. Website: http://tapiacenter.rice.edu/programs/rgem/ Contact: Leticia Velazquez (leti2rice.edu)
 CENTER FOR CIVIC LEADERSHIP RICE UNIVERSITY	The mission of the Center for Civic Leadership is to foster engaged citizenship through integrated curricular and experiential learning opportunities. These opportunities help students develop the capacity to exercise civic leadership by better understanding themselves, their responsibilities as citizens, the complexity of social issues, and the mechanisms for creating sustainable change in Houston and communities beyond. Graduate students have the opportunity to be graduate advisors for Houston Action Research Teams (HART), where they mentor and assist students with research methodology, team-building, and working in a professional context. Website: ccl.rice.edu HART Contact: Alan Steinberg (steinberg@rice.edu)
 GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION	All full-time students in graduate programs are members of the Graduate Student Association (GSA). The GSA mission is to enrich the graduate student experience and to represent, support, and promote graduate student interests and values. An integral and essential part of the Rice community, the GSA provides programs and services aiding in recruitment and retention of graduate students, represents graduate student interests to the University administration, and builds a strong sense of community both on and off campus. Website: http://gsa.rice.edu Contact: gsa@rice.edu
 The versatile PhD	Versatile PhD is an online resource to help humanities, social science, and STEM graduate students and PhDs in all fields identify, prepare for, and succeed in non-academic careers. Graduate students, faculty, postdocs, and others have free access to premium resources provided through Rice University's subscription to VPhD resources. Website: http://graduate.rice.edu/versatilephd Contact: Kiri Kilpatrick (kiri.kilpatrick@rice.edu)
 Center for Career Development	The Center for Career Development (CCD) offers programs, services and resources to guide you in pursuing your career goals. They equip students with the skills and confidence needed to discover their interests and navigate their career journey from college to graduation, and throughout your life. The CCD Final Fridays are special sessions just for graduate students held around the last Friday of each month. Topics are specific to the graduate student job search as well as professional communication (CVs/Interviewing). Website: http://ccd.rice.edu Contact: ccd@rice.edu

	The Initiative for Students is Rice's three-year volunteer engagement and fundraising effort to provide students with professional experience, leadership training and hands-on learning, while increasing scholarship support and building on our strengths in research, teaching and learning, and academic excellence. The Initiative provides opportunities for students to explore meaningful careers through externships and internships. Website: http://giving.rice.edu/student-initiative Contact: giving@rice.edu or alumni@rice.edu
DIGITAL MEDIA COMMONS	The Digital Media Commons (DMC) supports the creation and use of multimedia in education, scholarship, and creative expression. Working toward this end, they provide services that include hands-on training, assistance with digital projects, and access to the essential tools for creating digital resources such as digital video and audio, images and animations, PowerPoint presentations, web pages, and more. Website: http://library.rice.edu/dmc Contact: dmc-info@rice.edu
	The Rice Alliance for Technology and Entrepreneurship (Rice Alliance) is Rice University's nationally-recognized initiative devoted to the support of technology commercialization, entrepreneurship education, and the launch of technology companies. It was formed as a strategic alliance of three schools: the George R. Brown School of Engineering, the Wiess School of Natural Sciences and the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Business in collaboration with the Vice Provost and the Office of Research. The Rice Alliance is a catalyst for building successful ventures through education, guidance and connections. Its mission is to support the creation of technology-based companies and the commercialization of new technologies in the Houston community and Southwest. Website: http://alliance.rice.edu
RICE WELLBEING AND COUNSELING CENTER wellbeing	The Student Wellbeing Office supports student development and success by providing a good first point of contact for students who want to talk to someone about solutions to their wellbeing concerns. They give advice and practical support to help students resolve personal challenges, such as conflicts with friends, difficulty making decisions, struggling with your identity, and academic concerns or problems that are more serious in nature. The Rice Counseling Center (RCC) offers free, confidential support to help students manage course work, deadlines, personal and professional relationships, being away from home and/or family matters. The clinical team at the RCC is a diverse team of psychologists, social workers, counselors, and a consulting psychiatrist committed to providing professional, compassionate and individualized care. The RCC team provides assessment, short-term psychotherapy, and consultation services. Website: http://wellbeing.rice.edu Contact: wellbeing@rice.edu For appointments, call (713) 348-3311

	The vision of the Rice Women's Resource Center is not only a space on the Rice University campus, but also a community that fosters personal relationships and conversations. Our vision is to increase awareness of and sensitivity to gender issues in order to build a more supportive, dynamic atmosphere on campus. Through a series of educational and social events and programs, we hope to actively engage with diverse identities and facilitate critical discussion of gender issues. The center also serves as an innovative platform and safe space for expression and development of philosophies and ideologies. Website: http://women.rice.edu/ Contact: womenrc@rice.edu
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & SCHOLARS 	The mission of Rice University’s Office of International Students & Scholars (OISS) is to provide the best service and support possible for our international visitors (whose population includes degree-seeking students, visiting and exchange students, faculty, researchers, staff, and others). We seek to enhance our foreign visitors’ stay in the USA, and particularly at Rice, by providing quality cultural, academic, regulatory, and social programs. Website: http://oiss.rice.edu/ Contact: oiss@rice.edu
R.E.A.P. - International	REAP International (Rice Experiences Advertised to Prospects –Internationally), is a program designed to increase Rice University’s visibility on a broad-based scale to prospective international students, overseas universities/schools, and overseas advising centers, through hearing about Rice students’ experiences.
